

The Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra in conjunction with Sandhills Community College presents

The Music of Dance and Romance

Sunday, November 22

3:00 pm • $20 • Owens Auditorium

Tickets are on sale in the Katharine L. Boyd Library and will be available at the door on the day of the show.

Maestro Fouad Fakhouri will premiere his new work “Tito.” The Symphony will also perform the “Hungarian Dances” composed by Johannes Brahms and “Polovtsian Dances” from Prince Igor, composed by Alexander Borodin. The concert will conclude with Rachmaninov’s brilliant “Symphonic Dances.”

Pre-Concert Lecture

2:00 pm prior to the concert

125 Wellard Hall • Free

Professor Tim Haley will discuss the works to be played, their history and significance in the world of classical music.

FAYETTEVILLE
Symphony ORCHESTRA

Sandhills
COMMUNITY COLLEGE