

TITLE IX

Sandhills Community College adheres to all federal, state, and local civil rights laws prohibiting discrimination in employment and education. Sandhills Community College does not unlawfully discriminate in its admissions practices, in its employment practices, or in its educational programs or activities on the basis of sex/gender.

Sex includes [sex, sex stereotypes, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, and pregnancy or parenting status].

Sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating and domestic violence, and stalking are forms of sex discrimination, which are prohibited under Title IX and by Sandhills Community College policy.

Any person may report sex discrimination (whether or not the person reporting is the person alleged to have experienced the conduct), in person, by mail, by telephone or by email, using the contact information listed for the Title IX Coordinator below. A report may be made during non-business hours by contacting 911 or campus police at 910-695-3831.

For a complete copy of the policy or for more information, please visit <http://www.sandhills.edu/title-ix/> or contact the Title IX Coordinator.

HOW TO REPORT

Individuals who believe they have experienced sex discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation in violation of Sandhills Community College policy should contact the following:

Title IX Coordinator, Chreatha Alston, Stone Hall, Room 226, 910-246-2868, alstonc@sandhills.edu

In case of emergency:

- Dial 911;
- Call the main switchboard at (910) 695-6185; or
- Call campus security at (910) 695-3831 (at the Sandhills Hoke Center, call (910) 878-5802).

YOUR RIGHTS

Under Title IX you are entitled to:

- Be provided supportive measures, regardless of your choice to file a formal complaint.
- Be given the procedures victims should follow if a sex offense occurs, including who to contact and information about the importance of preserving physical evidence.
- Be provided the range of possible sanctions that may be imposed following an institutional disciplinary procedure.
- Be provided the right to a live hearing and an impartial finding based on the preponderance of evidence standard.
- Be given an equal opportunity to appeal any findings.
- Both the accuser and accused are entitled to an objective evaluation of all evidence.
