

SCI SCIENCE

Corequisites: None

This course introduces basic principles of chemistry, physics, and biology. Emphasis is placed on chemical reactions, energy forms, and ecological studies. Upon completion, students should be able to demonstrate mastery of the scientific method of thought and a basic understanding of chemistry, physics, and biology. (1997 SU) This course has been approved to satisfy the following requirement(s):

- Natural Science Gen. Ed. course for A.A.S. and A.G.E.