I would like to know how a gift to Sandhills can support the college's mission and provide benefits to me and members of my family. (Please check any item you would like to know more about)

- Can a person really make a charitable gift, increase income and save taxes? I would like to know more.
- I would like information on making gifts of stock, receiving income for life and saving both capital gains and income taxes.
- I would like language to include Sandhills Community College in my will or under provisions of a living trust.
- How does a person make a gift of an IRA, 401k, 403b or other retirement plan?
- I would like information on making a gift of assets to family or heirs and giving income to Sandhills Community College for a period of years and saving gift and/or estate taxes.
- I would like to discuss my interests with an officer of Sandhills Community College who handles confidential inquiries about gifting to the college.
- I have included Sandhills in my will or under provisions of my living trust.

from a letter Dr. Dempsey received from a Sandhills graduate this fall . . . “The education and the training I received at Sandhills have guided my career in a direction I never thought possible. I got a good job just before graduation and I have been climbing the job ladder ever since. Before Sandhills, it looked like my life would be permanently reduced to a salary of $15,000 a year. But since leaving Sandhills with my Associates Degree in 2000, I have tripled my earning power and have also successfully opened my own business here in Moore County. I attribute my success to Sandhills Community College and the dedicated instructors I found there. My experience at Sandhills and what I achieved have convinced me of the difference higher education can make in a person’s life. I will always be indebted to Sandhills and to the teachers who gave me the life-changing experiences that have made me what I am today.” Alison Durant, SCC Class of 2000

Since 1963, gifts to Sandhills have been changing lives. One life at a time. Everyday. Two of the college’s core values are Excellence and Opportunity. Excellence means that when a student arrives at Sandhills, he or she will find the best classrooms, laboratories and the best teachers possible. A gift to THE ANNUAL FUND FOR SANDHILLS supports the ongoing Excellence of the college’s programs. Opportunity means that no deserving student will be turned away for financial reasons. If you can do the work, there will be a place for you here. Gifts to the SCC Guarantors back the promise of Opportunity. A gift to the President’s 1963 Circle ($1963 or more) supports both core values—Academic Excellence AND Student Opportunity. At a time when our nation, our community and our students face considerable challenges, the life-changing work of Sandhills, the community’s college, goes on.

We hope you will generously support the mission of Sandhills Community College this year with a gift to THE ANNUAL FUND FOR SANDHILLS, the SCC Guarantors, or with a special commitment to the President’s 1963 Circle.

Please detach and return this portion with your gift. Thank you!
